Dear Aerie Sisters and Brothers,

A special thanks to Julie Osborne, Anne Wescott and Nancy Scott for covering for me at the 3581 Anniversary dinner. It was a sell out for the dinners.

Thank you, Anne Wescott, for stepping up and planning and cooking the Octoberfest dinner for Auxiliary night. All the dinners prepared were sold out. Also, thanks to Sharon Meyers, Karen Oddo and Nancy Scott for their help.

A huge thank you for a job well done to Nancy Scott and all her volunteers who once again made the Bingo Marathon in support of Art Erdman Cancer Charity, a great success.

The November Auxiliary Dinner is still TBD.

And finally, I wish you all a great and blessed Thanksgiving.

Fraternally,
Madam President,
Georgia Lombardo

ANGEL TREE KICKS OFF NOVEMBER 19TH

A sign up sheet and gift recipient tags will be given to the bartender on November 19th. The gift price limit is $30 and there will be 30 children. North Brevard Sharing provides Christmas for 600 children and this is our small part in helping them. Your unwrapped gifts and accompanying gift tags need to be at the Aerie by December 14th for pick-up.

Thank you for your support.

Our Brothers and Sisters,

October was a fantastic month. The ride to Bradenton was amazing, we clocked 375 miles. We had a great time hitting up other aeries on the way back. We received an award for having the most members at the meeting. Whoop whoop !!! Next quarterly meeting will be at Vero beach on January 12th. We would like to get as many Riders as possible to ride to this event. The weather is starting to change, that makes for great rides.

October fun night was amazing with Chili Cook-off and Halloween costume contest. Thank you everybody who participated. The money raised is going to Missing in America Project Charity. We will give it to them in person at Post 1 on November 11th. All riders are invited. November's fun night, we are going to have wings and fries with Turkey bowling and other games. The band "Gypsy Rain" will be rocking !!!

There are a lot of rides coming up, so stay up to date at our riders meeting and 3581 Eagle Riders site on Facebook. Our aerie's is a stop for Post 1 on November 25th from 1PM. It's there biggest ride, so let's participate by being at our Eagles or making the ride. We are a top notch charter and our brothers and sisters are the most devoted members in every way I have ever seen.

I want to thank my Daughter Nancy and son-in-law Tom for all the wonderful prizes that they contributed for this charity. Thanks to Don Crull for coming from Michigan to be my Bingo Caller. My Bake Sale lady Julie Osborne, great job. Catherine Bond for stepping up and helping. Thank you Diane Anderson and Jess Hill for all the work you did for me behind the bar. Brothers and Sisters,

It is hard to believe we are in the holiday months already. We welcome the return of our rib and steak dinners and of course our snow bird friends whom we have been anxious to see. The anniversary dinner was a huge success and a big thank you to everyone that worked so hard to make it a special event.

The date for our Aerie to go non-smoking is November 1st. We have a committee that is working very hard on making provisions for this change. Any suggestions are welcome.

We have some super fund raisers coming up and the chairpersons would appreciate your support. October and November are awareness months for woman's and men's health. Please help support organizations that provide research for these health issues.

We are having a work party on Nov 24th at 9AM. Breakfast at VFW at 8 if interested. Come out and help your brothers.

We mourn the passing of our brothers this past month and prayers are out to their families.

Be well and be cool!

Non-Smoking

Beginning November 1st, the Aerie will be a non-smoking Aerie. This includes, cigarettes, cigars, ecigs, vapes, etc. The Aerie continues to work on provisions to provide our smoking members a place to smoke. Hopefully this process will move along quickly. Thank you for your patience while that is accomplished. Meanwhile smoking will be outside of the building or at our picnic pavilion.
